This agency has reviewed its conflict of interest code and has determined that:

X Amendments are necessary: (Attach Amended Code)
(Check all that applies)

☐ Include new positions (including consultants) which must be designated

☐ Revise the titles of existing positions

☐ Delete titles of positions that have been abolished

☐ Delete positions that manage public investments

☐ Revise disclosure categories

X Other District counsel has reviewed and recommends changes to the District's Conflict of Interest Code. The old version set forth all of the text of 18730 which defeats the purpose of incorporating by reference and would require a modification every time a change was made to Section 18730.

☐ No amendments are necessary. Our agency's code accurately designates all positions which make or participate in the making of governmental decisions; the disclosure assigned to those positions accurately requires the disclosure of all investments, business positions, interests in real property and sources of income which may foresee-ably be affected materially by the decision made by those designated positions; and the code includes all other provisions required by Government Code Section 87302.

AP 2712 CONFLICT OF INTEREST CODE

References:

Government Code Section 87100 – 87500;
Title 2 Section 18730

The Political Reform Act (Government Code Sections 87100 et seq.) requires state and local government agencies to adopt and promulgate conflict of interest codes. The Fair Political Practices Commission has adopted a regulation (Title 2 California Code of Regulations Section 18730) which contains the terms of a standard conflict of interest code, and which can be incorporated by reference as the local agency's conflict of interest code. Whenever the Fair Political Practices Commission adopts any changes or amendments to Section 18730, they are automatically adopted without further action by any local agency which has incorporated Section 18730 as the agency's conflict of interest code. Therefore, the Palomar Community College District ("District") hereby adopts Section 18730 and incorporates it by reference as its conflict of interest code. This replaces and supersedes any prior conflict of interest code after approval by the San Diego County Board of Supervisors.
